

Fill in the blanks with appropriate words

- In 1969, Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin (a)___ on moon for the first time. Their (b)___gave people around the world the hope of future space(c)____. In fact, it was a feat that was so fantastic that there are still conspiracy theorists who insist it could not be(d)____. (e)___a man on the moon is perhaps man's most (f)___accomplishment; it opened the door to future (g)___travel and led to a number of spin-off inventions including flame (h)_____textiles used by firefighters, (i)_____ braces, improved satellite dishes, and better (j)_____imaging

- ARPANET: Advanced Research Projects Agency Network