

Simple, Complex & Compound Sentences:

Examples:

1. a) complex: Although/ though he is poor, he is honest.
b) compound: He is poor but (he is) honest
c) simple: In spite of his being poor, he is honest.

2. a) complex: Since/as/when Runa won the competition, we praised her.
b) compound: Runa won the competition and we praised her.
c) simple: Having won the competition, we praised Runa.

3. a) complex: Since/as/because he was absent from the class, he could not understand the lesson.
b) compound: He was absent from the class and he could not understand the lesson.
c) simple: Because of his being absent from the class, he could not understand the lesson.

4. a) complex: I saw a man who was working in the field.
b) compound: I saw a man and he was working in the field.
c) simple: I saw a man working in the field.

5. a) complex: If you do not work hard, you will not pass in the exam.
b) compound: Work hard or you will not pass in the exam.
c) simple: Without working hard, you will not pass in the exam.

6. a) complex: If you work hard, you will pass in the exam.
b) compound: Work hard and you will pass in the exam.
c) simple: By working hard you will pass in the exam.

7. a) complex: He worked hard so that he could prosper in life.
b) compound: He worked hard and thus he could prosper in life.
c) simple: He worked hard in order to prosper in life.

8. a) complex: He is so weak that he can not work.
b) compound: He is very weak and he can not work.
c) simple: He is too weak to work.

9. a) complex: He is so strong that he can work hard.
b) compound: He is very strong and he can work hard.
c) simple: He is strong enough to work hard.