

Q. Read the following text and use modifiers as directed in the blank spaces. .5×10=5

Education, (a) source of knowledge, (use appositive to post-modify the noun) is essential for development. We can improve (b) our (possessive to pre-modify the noun) mind. An (c) educated/learned (use adjective to pre-modify the noun) person has the ability (d) to change/ to develop (infinitive phrase) himself. One can refine one's sensibility by (e) changing (Present participle phrase) oneself. Actually, the educated people are able to bring about (f) real/ original (pre-modify the noun) development. On the other hand, an (g) illiterate/uneducated (pre-modify the noun) person (h) really (use adverb to pre-modify the verb) lag behind. So, the educated people should come forward (i) in order (prepositional phrase) to educate all in the society to unload (j) the (use determiner) owes to the country.

Samia, a student of DIC, goes to college regularly.

Sylhet, famous for tea-garden, is a division of BD.

Robert Bruce, king of Scotland, is a highly motivated person.

Appositive: a word or a phrase set beside a word gives an additional information about the word.

Infinitive: to + V1

Pre-modify the noun: adjective

Pre-modify the verb : adverb

Pre-modify the adj : adverb

Prepositional phrase: in front of, in lieu of, instead of, in spite of, by dint of, in order to etc.